PRONUNCIATION GUIDE

The letters of the Mountain Arapesh (Bukiyúp) alphabet have the following approximate pronunciation:

é	as in but
ú	as in Australian English father
ny	as in Pidgin English nius but slightly more rapid
h	at the end of words is pronounced with friction
ch	as in English cheese

All other letters are pronounced approximately as in Melanesian Pidgin.

Yu lukim dispela tok. Em i helpim yu long kisim save long ritim tok ples Bukiyúp.

é	élman	man
ú	búb	buai
ny	nyak	yu
h	hah	pinga bilong han
ch	chuwup	lip

Olgeta arapela leta i wankain long tok pisin.

Mak
Mark
Jenesis
Genesis Abridged 1-19

Wycliffe Bible Translators
P.O. Kangaroo Ground
Victoria, Australia 3097

Published 1976

Printed by the S.I.L. Printing Department
Ukarumpa, E.H.P., Papua New Guinea

ISBN 0 86893 031 8